C. Milton Wolfe

The late Milt Wolfe was an enthusiastic life member of Protection Engine Company No. 1 in the Village of Fishkill. His support and enthusiasm for the volunteer fire service was always in evidence. Milt served actively in several capacities including line and civil offices and as a Fire Policeman. His enthusiasm continued with his late son, George, who rose through the ranks to become Chief of the Department and on to his grandson, Richard "Radar" Wolfe who has served as a chief officer. The scholarship award was named in Milt's honor shortly after his passing in 1979. It has been awarded to a deserving student every year an application was rendered since then.
